

Biography: JASMIN BROWN

Jasmin Brown, also known as Jazzy or Jazz, rapidly became an online sensation. Known for her “in-car” rants and original characters, such as Toya Turnup, Termite and Reggie, Jasmin managed to build a whole new audience by simply being herself.

Funny, ambitious, inspirational, humble and passionate are a few of many words to describe the comedic actress of Miami, FL, who now resides in Los Angeles, CA. Her passion for writing and creating original content have made her a very unique talent to work with. Jasmin continues to surprise her fans, followers and supporters with new appearances, videos and projects. However, her career goes beyond the attractive websites, hashtags and social media trends. Jasmin encourages and continues to inspire her female-dominate audience in a comical, yet truthful way, on trends, love and life with laughter.

Today, Jasmin is performing as a standup comic and continues to film for independent projects, while taking on opportunities that will further her career. Jasmin is also a main cast member on BET’s new comedy sketch show, 50 Central. On her way to being a household name, Jasmin continues to capture the hearts of her supporters with humor.
