OLIVER VAQUER

A Native New Yorker, OLIVER VAQUER (Vah-CARE) attended The Atlantic Theater Company's Acting program through NYU's Tisch School of the Arts on a full acting scholarship. It was there that he met and worked with Jonathan Liebesman and Ashton Kutcher in Liebesman's first short, Distance.

From there, he appeared on Broadway in TALK RADIO! w/ Liev Schreiber and Sebastian Stan. Subsequently, he has been fortunate enough to work on Arrested Development, The Office, Dexter, Law and Order, Guys With Kids, The Client List, Save Me and two pilots, Split the Difference w/ Nick Kroll which won the New York Television Festival and Global Warming w/ Kristen Wiig, Aasif Mandvi and Mindy Kaling. Most recently he worked with Dane Cook in a Funny or Die! Exclusive: P.A.T.T. and with Alfred Molina in a staged reading of Linthead.

For over a decade Oliver has had a successful career in commercial, Interactive and animated Voice Over. He gained national attention as the voice of the famed Dairy Queen "Lips" Campaign for 5+ years; he took over for Robert Downey, Jr. as Lois' brother Patrick on Family Guy and drew an International following as the voice of Robert Lutece in Ken Levine's Bioshock: Infinite.
