ALEXIS G. ZALL

Born in Phoenix Arizona on June 6, 1998... Alexis G. Zall first saw herself achieving greatness in the world of gymnastics, training level 9 and working towards a full ride scholarship. However, an unfortunate hamstring injury changed things for her completely. But, never one to sit still for too long, Alexis soon discovered her love of acting when she landed a leading role in her school's 6th Grade play. Since then, there has been no stopping her.

Alexis and her mother came to Los Angeles in August of 2012, planning to stay for a month or so, "to see how things went". Nine months later, after booking several commercials, a few short films, and even the lead in an independent feature it was clear they would be staying in Los Angeles for good. July of the following year, her self created, incredibly funny YouTube Channel took off like a rocket! And currently, "youtube.com/alexisgzall" boasts a subscribership of over 375,000 and growing daily! Recently, she was named HLN's "Successful YouTuber of the Day", which is very fitting considering that she writes, produces, edits, shoots, and stars in all of her hilarious mini-productions for her wildy popular YouTube Channel. Additionally she has appeared in multiple productions for Awesomeness TV and regularly collaborates along side some of the industry's biggest New Media celebrities. She writes and stars on the weekly show BOMB(dot)COM for Shane Dawson's uber successful YouTube Channel and was aptly named the "Rising Star To Watch" on Stayfamous.net in 2013.

Alexis G. Zall has her sights set to be the next Tina Fey, and given the amount of hard work and dedication she devotes every single day to her professional life, there is no doubt she will achieve greatness!
